

Shri Sai Sumiran Trust At A Glance

Briefly Shri Sai Sumiran Trust is committed to the charity works only. The aim is to help the needy people who cannot afford to provide medical treatment, education, and other basic necessities of life for themselves and/or their family. It also provides vocational training to the deserving and eligible persons to make them self-dependant.

Shri Sai Sumiran Trust has been organizing various programs from time to time, a few of them are:-

a) A free Acupressure camp was organized in the hall of Sai Dham, Patel Nagar. Number of people were treated for their medical problems such as knee, survival & back pains & migraine etc.

b) Similar free Acupressure Camp was organized in Sai Dham, Sohna Road, Gurgaon. A good no. of people attended the camp and were treated by Mr. Naresh Sharma, Acupressure Specialist for pain related problems. Also a lecture on yoga and exercises was delivered by the Specialist and some of the exercises were demonstrated by him for the use by the persons who attended the camp.

c) Shri Sai Sumiran Trust organized Bhajan Sandhya and bhandara at Prerna Sangh Niketan, Dwarka, a School for handicapped and poor children run by Ms. Meenu Saxena.

d) On the occasion of Independence day water bottles were given to 100 children of Ashirwad Special Education School for Handicapped children, Nasir Pur Road, Durga Park, Delhi.

e) Shri Sumit, a 20 years old boy who is suffering from kidney failure is provided the prescribed medicines for his treatment, delivered at his residence. The cost of the medicine is about Rs. 14000 per month.

f) Mrs. Madhu who lost her husband and has two little children aged 3 years and 5 years, was given a stitching machine to enable her to earn and make her living with dignity. Her children were also sponsored for education by the Trust.

Four more Children from Delhi and Palampur (H.P.) were sponsored for education and provided with books, copies, school uniform etc.

g) Two drug addict youngsters were given financial help to get treatment from Sai Sahara Nasha Mukti Kendra, Inderpuri, New Delhi

YOU MAY JOIN HANDS WITH US FOR THESE AND OTHER NOBLE CAUSES TO HELP NEEDY AND POOR BY GIVING GENEROUS DONATIONS. The donations so received are strictly being utilized for helping the poor after proper scrutiny and the help is provided in kind also wherever possible. You are also welcome to take membership of the Trust by paying Rs.2100/- annually. You may send your donations by cheque in favour of "Shri Sai Sumiran Trust." F-44-D, M.I.G. Flats, G-8 Area, Hari Nagar, New Delhi - 110064, OR The donations may be sent direct to account no. 01291450000104 of HDFC Bank, Janakpuri, New Delhi, branch code 0129.

For any further information you may please contact cell no. 09818023070.

- Anju Tandon, General Secretary